[Horace Andy]

Yeah yeah yeah ah You see a man's face But you don't see his heart You see a man's face But you will never know his thoughts

Everywhere you go There's a man to say love Never neither never neither Take it to heart

For your heart is your heart And your thoughts is your thoughts Never mix love with hatred

You see a man's face
You will never see his heart
You see a man's face
But you will never know his thoughts
You see a man's face
You will never know his thoughts
You see a man's face
