

Return from Avalon

Masterplan

Abandon your dreams, all hope is lost and gone
Time to stop fighting, unwinnable wars

Let's make a choice between heaven and hell Finally found your way out of the dark

[CHORUS]

Swallow your pride, move on,
don't hide your heart of stone
I'm haunted by memories from distant times
Fires will burn, he'll never return from Avalon Recovering his wounds in this lost paradise

Once you had a dream that would never die
In front of the abyss you are driven by fear

The blood on your hands
won't change your destiny
Flames of freedom leading out of the dark

[CHORUS]

Swallow your pride, move on,
don't hide your heart of stone
I'm haunted by memories from distant times
Fires will burn, he'll never return from Avalon Recovering his wounds in this lost paradise

[SOLO]

The blood on your hands
won't change your destiny
Flames of freedom
leading out of the dark

[CHORUS]

Swallow your pride, move on,
don't hide your heart of stone
I'm haunted by memories from distant times
Fires will burn, he'll never return from Avalon Recovering his wounds in this lost paradise

Swallow your pride, move on,
don't hide your heart of stone
Fires will burn, he'll never return from Avalon Recovering his wounds in this lost paradise
