Punchlines

Mates of State

Waiting close by the door for us Can't hardly see out but if you could You'd make it all worth our while Punchlines you've been saving up for some 90 years

Waiting close by the door for us Can't hardly see out but if you could You'd make it all worth our while Punchlines take pity on me

It's not the same without you around It's not the same without you

Waiting close by the door for us Can't hardly see out but if you could You'd make it all worth our while Punchlines you've been saving up for some 90 years

Waiting close by the door for us Can't hardly see out but if you could You'd make it all worth our while Punchlines take pity on me

It's not the same without you around It's not the same without you

I've been thinking it's an afterthought Get into the car and you aim it at the sun, boy Can't you hear me in the aftermath Get into the car and you point it at the west
