

Some People Fall, Some People Fly

Matraca Berg

It was a long, hard road, it was all up hill
We nearly lost our way, we nearly lost our will
So we clung to the rocks where the cold winds blow
Till love gave us strength to finally let go

We, we climbed that mountain and we got so high
Then on the wings of an angel we took to the sky
Out here on the edge love dares us to try
Baby, some people fall but some people fly

Many they fall for passion's kiss
And many they say is this is all there is
Well, it never was easy to rise above
To look into the eyes of love

We, we climbed that mountain and we got so high
Then on the wings of an angel we took to the sky
Out here on the edge love dares us to try
Baby, some people fall but some people fly

And baby, love has no fear leap
And a net will appear

We, we climbed that mountain and we got so high
Then on the wings of an angel we took to the sky
Out here on the edge love dares us to try
Baby, some people fall but some people fly

Some people fly, some people fly
