

I'm On Your Side

Matt Hires

Let it out, let it out
You can't hold back now, hold back now
Cause nobody knows you like I do
Nobody knows you like that

You're broken down, cracked and crippled
Turned inside out, see in triple but
Nobody loves you like I do
Nobody loves you like that

I'm on your si-i-i-i-ide
I'm on your si-i-i-i-ide

So don't back down, don't back down
When they take your love and tear it out
Because nobody sees you like I do
Nobody sees you like that

They've got plastic hearts and storm about beauty
No that don't mean nothing to me
Cause nobody loves you like I do
Nobody loves you like that

I'm on your si-i-i-i-ide
I'm on your si-i-i-i-ide
So honey fire up your heart
And push my pedal to the ground
I'm on your si-i-i-i-ide
I'm on your side

So let's get the hell out of this city
[?] the wind at our backs
Nobody loves you like I do
Nobody loves you like that

I'm on your si-i-ide
I'm on your si-i-ide

I'm on your si-i-i-i-ide
I'm on your si-i-i-i-ide
So honey fire up your heart
And push my pedal to the ground
We're chasing out horizon
85 and windows down
I'm on your si-i-i-i-ide
I'm on your si-i-i-i-ide
I'm on your side
