

The Wilderness

Matt Hires

In the wilderness
Where you go to die
Where your body's breaks
Under a neon sky
In the wilderness
Yeah you're bound to fall
When you can't tell the difference
Between a chapel and a shopping mall

Yeah are you in?
Are you out?
Going up
Going down
Is this the wrong conversation
Just an easy way out
Of the wilderness

Where 100 screams
Tell you what you need
And what to believe
So give me something else
That's not advertised
Before we all get buried
Underneath a tidal wave of flashing light

Yeah are left
Are you right
Man, is god on your side
Seems like the wrong conversation
Cause you left me behind
In the wilderness

Come and see
What you are wondering
The wilderness
Come and find your rest
Come and see
You who are wandering
The wilderness
Come and find your rest

Yeah are you in
Are you out
Going up
Going down
Is this the wrong conversation
Just an easy way out
Oh, are you left
Are you right
Man, is god on your side?
Seems like the wrong conversation
Cause you left me behind
In the wilderness
Where you go to die
Let your body break
And come back alive
