

Heaven Help Me

Matt Maher

I don't wanna live tomorrow
For another rainy day
I don't wanna say I'm sorry
If I can avoid the pain
I don't wanna gain the whole world
Just to turn and lose it all
Cause when it's time to jump I don't wanna guess
If You'll gonna help break the fall
If there's any hope around

Heaven help me now
Heaven help me now
I lift You up and I lay me down
Heaven help me now

I don't wanna sing Your praises
Just to hear 'em on the radio
I don't wanna stand for justice
If I'm not among the poor
I don't wanna claim to know You
If your name's not on my heart
Cause when it's time to go I don't wanna look back
Just to see I was playin' a part
If there's any hope around

Heaven help me now
Heaven help me now
I lift You up and I lay me down
Heaven help me now
Heaven help me now (I believe, I believe, I believe)
Heaven help me now (I believe, I believe, I believe)
I believe You can help me now (I believe, I believe, I believe)
I believe You can help me now (I believe, I believe, I believe)

Everybody's quoting the bible
Like it could be truth or lies
And I'm standing on the corner
With the saints and the sinners
Tryin' to quote Your love
With my life

Heaven help me now
Heaven help me now
I lift You up and I lay me down
Heaven help me now
Heaven help me now (I believe, I believe, I believe)
Heaven help me now (I believe, I believe, I believe)
Oh heaven help me now
