

Mighty Fortress

Matt Maher

How can I stand
Before a mystery
And claim I comprehend
The maker of all things?

You hold us all at once
The world is in Your hands
You call us as your own
So we would understand, we would understand

You are the rock of salvation
The only foundation
Lord of all
You are a hope never failing
A mighty fortress
Is our God

As every trial comes
And kingdoms rise and fall
Our victory belongs
To Christ who won it all

Forever knew about
Every turn can fail us
That You, Lord and God
There is no one else
There is no one else

So we're lost in You
We're lost in You
And by Your side
We won't be moved
We're lost in You
We're lost in You
If there's a life
We won't be moved
We're lost in You
We're lost in You
How righteous is
And all reveals
We're lost in You
We're lost in You
In this life
We won't be moved

This is our offering
Let all you people sing
A mighty fortress is our God
