For the city, for the world we pray Let Your light shine down Come around and live in us For the close and the far away

Everywhere You are Everywhere

And we lift high the banner of the cross
There is no greater love than this, no love but this
Jesus Christ laid down His life for us
There is no greater love than His, no love but His

To the city, to the world we go Set us free, heal the land You have promised, God, You can To the last and the least we go

Everywhere You are Everywhere

And we lift high the banner of the cross There is no greater love than this, no love but this Jesus Christ laid down His life for us There is no greater love than His, no love but His

In the poor, in the broken
In the crowded city streets
In the towers, in the money
In the strong and in the weak

In the orphans and the widows
In the churches and the bars
You are everywhere
God, You are everywhere

And we lift high the banner of the cross
There is no greater love than this, no love but this
Jesus Christ laid down His life for us
There is no greater love than His, no love but His
