

Welcome to Life

Matt Maher

Hello, good morning everyone
Underneath the glorious sun
I wrote a little song for you
Sometimes we forget we are
The image of the love of God
So please, if you don't mind
Let me remind you
That we were made to love each other
As a sister and a brother
Imitate perfection in this imperfect world

Hey, welcome to life! I hope you enjoy
In between yesterday and tomorrow
Welcome to life! I hope that you get it right

On the way, I do confess
We stumble, fall, and make a mess
Everything we try to hold dear
So be honest when you pray
And maybe thank him for today
And let go of the future
So unclear
Listen for the voice of mercy
Cast out all your fear and worry
Can't you see you've only got room for the cross?

Hey, welcome to life! I hope you enjoy
In between yesterday and tomorrow
Welcome to life! I hope that you get it right

And you live and you'll die
You'll be honest and you'll lie
Put your trust where the truth is
And you treasure where your heart is

So, welcome to life! I hope you enjoy
In between yesterday and tomorrow
Welcome to life! I hope that you get it

And, welcome to life! I hope you enjoy
In between yesterday and tomorrow
Welcome to life! I hope that you get it right

Hope that we get it right
Hope that I get it right

Welcome to life!
Welcome to life!
