

Giving It All Away

Matt Pond PA

I'm giving it all away tonight
To the first girl who comes up and says you are alright
We can watch the stars in the same way
For one night and then I'll go away
Because I don't want to be tied too tight
That's why I'm giving it all away tonight

Open up, let me out please
All I've ever wanted is to leave
The sun some day is going to die
That's why I'm giving it all away tonight
Because I've given up on everything that's mine
For no reason I'm tied to trees
My shoulders scarred from shaky leaves
Run and hide along roadsides
I'm giving it all away tonight

Open up, let me out, please
All I've ever wanted is to leave
The sun some day is going to die
That's why I'm giving it all away tonight

Giving it all away tonight
Cause I haven't been that good at being quiet
I knew someone whose body moved
The same way that my body moves
I know there was somebody right
And she's giving it all away tonight
