

Out On Our Own

Matthew Mayfield

I was nothing but a reason
To a girl with a feeling
Now she's looking for a man who can flip a switch
And not give a sh*t
Write a nice check
Nothing to risk

I was everything she wanted
Nice and dead and disappointed
Now I'm looking for a woman who can show her eyes
Can't change her mind
Walk away still, but can't say goodbye

Is it getting closer
To finally being over
Are we getting out on our own?
Are we getting out on our own?

You remember when I called you
Shortly afterwards I saw you
Now the handcuffs are on
And you smile and sneer to wipe out the fear
Look at you now
