

Preach

Maverick Sabre

Born in the sun
Saved
Brought here to love
But weighted by deceit
All of this hope
Has changed
I'm sinking slow
In chains

Fooled to keep myself
In shame
Words from the preacher man
Ingrained in my head
Do I believe
In fate?
It's so hard to feel your faith
It's so hard to feel your faith

Why don't you just preach
Why don't you just preach
Say why don't you just preach
And why don't you just preach
Said why don't you just preach
And why don't you just preach
Said why don't you just preach
And why don't you just preach

Waiting to be
Saved
Hung by the trees
With flames from your sons
And where were you in all this pain?
Because I feel it more than ever now
And where were you through all this rage?
And why should I believe

Why don't you just preach
And why don't you just feel
And why do you just preach
And why don't you just feel
And why don't you just preach
And why don't you just feel
And why do you just preach
And why don't you just feel
I said why don't you just preach
And why don't you just preach
