

Wrong

MAX

You're a lonely girl
A lo.. go

Wanted to take her back to my place
Driving 90, let the cops chase
Making that "Damn it feels so good" face
Cause she don't wanna wait, no, wait 'til we get home

Oh that girl, she want it, yeah she need it
She a bad mother, and I believe it
She says "Pull over and don't lock the doors"
She doesn't care who sees anymore
It's better when it feels wrong
Better when it feels wrong
Ooh yeah

Six miles high up in the airspace
She says, "Come on to the back, baby"
Everybody knows just what's happening
But she don't give a shhh, nah, she just want this OOH!!

Oh that girl, she want it, yeah she need it
She a bad mother, and I believe it

She says "Come closer and don't lock the door"
She doesn't care who sees anymore
It's better when it feels wrong
It's better when it feels wrong
It's better when it feels wrong
It's better when it feels wrong
(Lil Uzi Vert)

Wanna skrrt in that drop top? Come here
I ain't seen Max since like the summer, yeah
Count up hundreds, I stay thumbin', yeah
Count up hundreds, I stay thumbin', yeah
Now baby are you really feelin' me
Or just because what I was just talkin' about?
After I'm done you tell me you love me
I look at you, now I'll be kickin' you out
Yeah, baby tell me is it real
Baby tell me is it real
Baby tell me is it real

It's better when it feels wrong
It's better when it feels wrong
It's better when it feels wrong
It's better when it feels wrong
It's better when it feels wrong
