(M--Mitchell; L--DuBois)

night flights on a music ship / leading on a never ending trip we race the sun again and we chase the world night flights on a midnight jet stream / riding the wind from d ream to dream we race the world around and we chase the sun sky divers touching down / to spread sweet thunder all around just one night to shake you loose / then on to take another tow n we see you in a fever / standing by the exit door we'd like to ignite you / but a big bright bird waits to take u s for more

night flights on a midnight jet stream $\ /$ riding the wind from d ream to dream

we race the world around and we chase the sun riding a midnight runaway / watching the blue lights fall away we race the world around and we chase the sun