

Delete Lola

Maxeen

it was the signs
on your face
that i never could see
its was the fact
i forgot
some kind of anniversary

At the phone
you would wait
but i never would call
it's the thought
that never counted
cause there's no thought at all

Distress codes sent for a rescue to relieve me of the boredom that i'm feeling with you in a daydream i'd compute the first day we would meet and simply press delete

Because i just don't care
so give it a break
i just don't care
so i made a mistake
i just don't care

and there's one thing to do
it's ture
i need to get ride of you
no matter what i try
i never get through my random acts od kindness you'd just misconstrue

i guess it comes down
to a lack of trust
a heart that used to work has since been covered with dust in the shadows of the year you know i never could tell if i had feelings for you or i was under some spell and now the only kiss i can justify is a kiss goodbye

i just don't care

i need to get rid of you
