Strangers

Maxeen

here come the critics oh to tear your heart wide open here come the lawyers billions for phone conversation you got some talnet kid you're really going places i've heard it many times from all the empty faces

don't talk to strangers

my mona lisa early sunday morning i find you so incredibly boring you got some talnet kid you're really going places i've heard it so many times from all you pretty faces

and you all look so strange to me

i've heard it so many times from all the empty faces
