

Everything Inside Me Is Ill

Maximilian Hecker

I feel the sunlight's pouring rain
And I don't feel like I am sane
It keeps on running through my head
Oh, everything is ill

I'm hiding under thunderclouds
Neurosurgeon, help me out
I'm strung out falling to the ground
Oh, everything is ill

Lightning in your eyes
Sunlight in your hair
How I love you today
Hold me in your arms
It's endlessly insane
How I love you today
How I love you today
