

Flower Four

Maximilian Hecker

All that grief in my teeth
And all this running for love
No, I can't stand anymore
That your sweet eyes don't watch me

And I believe in no gods
But what leads me to you?
And so I'll start to love your face
And in the end I will love you

So I'll play just this song
And maybe I've been wrong
So I'll play just this song
But what if you are gone?

So take me home
