

Hard Time

Maywood

You always stood for faith and loyalty.
The words you said, the things you promised me
Faded away like mist on a rainy night.
How can you be so unpredictable?
I think I never was so flexible.
How can it feel so wrong,
When it should feel so right?... so right.

You're giving me a hard time.
What happened to devotion?
Show some of your emotion and then
We gonna start all over again.
You're giving me a rough time.
It should be something special.
I think you got a right to be free,
But watch out what you're doing to me.
You're giving me a hard time.

You make me feel like I'm invisible.
Without your love I feel so miserable.
Somebody must have changed you while I wasn't there.
How could I know there was a part of you
You never showed, I never really knew.
I'm making my final move,
You've got to search elsewhere!... elsewhere.

[2x:]

You're giving me a hard time.
What happened to devotion?
Show some of your emotion and then
We gonna start all over again.
You're giving me a rough time.
It should be something special.
I think you got a right to be free,
But watch out what you're doing to me.
You're giving me a hard time.

What happened to devotion?
Show some of your emotion and then
We gonna start all over again.
You're giving me a rough time...
