

Transmutation

MDFMK

I wasn't sure if I could go that far
But I never thought that I'd crash so hard
Come undone, fall apart

I didn't realize what I'd found
But it hit me right when I hit the ground
Screamed at me without a sound

Straight lie to say I'm surprised
Just totally stunned, paralyzed
Emotionless, hypnotized

Something inside of my head
Got way too good at being bad
Way too good at being bad

In place of hope there should be fear
There's signs and signals everywhere

Transmuted information
Transmutating the equation
World is alluding, illusion is ruling

You are denied here
Transmutation is consuming
Transmutate

No clue what exactly occurred
But the vision's fogged
And the memory's blurred
I'm hearing things I've never heard

Don't know how long it's been
But something new crawls under my skin
Something strange creeping in

Shape shift of a punished mind
Another broken heart beating overtime
Intertwined serpentine

Full force, accelerate
Don't hesitate
Get away
Gotta get away
