

Skin and Bones

Me vs Hero

(Verse)

Have seen it all, several feel your throat
You feel invincible
But I was born and raise meeting some principles
You seem to have escaped, torn individual
I think that you forget, we're all just people

(Interlude)

Just skin and bones
There's nothing special hiding underneath those clothes
We're all just from the same stone
(You ain't different as I am not)
You expect the world to get nothing
(Don't you see, we are alike?)
The beginning you might find
A better peace of mind

(Chorus)

You won't believe my rigorous company
You place yourself so high
(So high, you're neva comin' down)
Set the long way, out from my reality
It goes to show you're just another relentable ? alone

(Bridge)

It's all you, your modesty is slightly overdue
You're tattered by the call of you (colored view?!)
That's something we can paint a great picture(?)

(Chorus)

You won't believe my rigorous company
You place yourself so high
(So high, you're neva comin' down)
Set the long way, out from my reality
It goes to show you're just another relentable ? alone
Alone, you're alone, just another who ? alone
