

Trial by Fire

Mean Streak

High on life, in raging speed
Rip you up, make you bleed
Lightning flash across the sky
Prepare to fight prepare to die

A battlefield, a warmachine
Unbreakable, you will see
A fireball, on gasoline
No remorse and no retreat

When the world around bursts in to fire
Who will stab your back now who's the liar

Trial by tire, at the end of the day
Trial by fire, blood won't betray
