

Courageous

Megan Nicole

We're all made of many pieces
A million emotions
Every shade and every color in the world
You are perfectly imperfect
Thinking you're broken
Never knowing just how much you're really worth

Oh but I can see
See your spirit shining bright
Like a beautiful mosaic
A kaleidoscope of light

Even if the sky comes falling down
No one's standing in your way
They can't stop you now
Spread your wings and fly above the clouds 'cause you are
Courageous, courageous, courageous
Oo oh
Courageous, courageous, courageous
I know that's what you are

Hollow words and empty weapons
Don't let them define you
'Cause you're stronger than you even realize
Others try to simplify you
But don't know what you've been through
There's so much you've hidden all your life

Oh, but through the cracks and splinters
I see your spirit shining bright
Like a beautiful mosaic
A kaleidoscope of light

Even if the sky comes falling down
No one's standing in your way
They can't stop you now
Spread your wings and fly above the clouds 'cause you are
Courageous, courageous, courageous
Oo oh
Courageous, courageous, courageous
Oo oh

Even if the sky comes falling down
No one's standing in your way
They can't stop you now
Spread your wings and fly above the clouds 'cause you are
Courageous, courageous, courageous
Oo oh
Courageous, courageous, courageous
I know that's what you are
