

Go To Hell

Meiko

You don't know it all
Never really did
I learned to stand tall
When I was just a kid
I learned to stand tall
When I was just a kid
And you say that
I will die and go to hell
You say that
I will die and go to hell

'Cause you know me so well
People think they have
Everything they need
Truth in what they hear
Truth in what they read
And they leave
And they do all kinds of mean, mean things

And you say that
I will die and go to hell
You say that
I will die and go to hell
'Cause you know me so well

One day I'll see you again
At the pearly gates of heaven
And I'll be on the list
Behind the velvet rope
At a table with bottle service
And you say that
I will die and go to hell
You say that
I will die and go to hell
'Cause you know me
You know me so well
