

Gone And Never Coming Back

Melanie Fiona

It's sad that memories never die just fill your head with why then you're caught living a lie again

It's sad that all he ever said was that he loved me to death but then he's gone again and I was wrong again

Cause you think it's easier easy like that just when i wasn't finished you were gone like that

Can't you hear me crying cause i need you back Cause I'm slowly dying
Cause I need you bad

But you're gone and never coming back gone and not coming back he's never coming back

Shoulda known
The long kiss goodbye would bring sadness in my life wearing this disguise again I wish that you would have said or lied to me instead like a bullet to my head like a fool I pretend that it's on again on again

you were gone like that

Can't you hear me crying
Cause I need you back
And I'm slowly dying
cause I need you bad

Who ever said look on the brighter side has never been on mine Who ever said that he'll get his never felt like this Ain't no use in crying when you're done like that cause baby, baby you took something that I can't buy back

And now you're gone and never coming back coming back ooh he's not coming back
