

Deep Within the Corners of My Mind

Melody Gardot

Deep within the corners of my mind
I keep a memory of your face
And I only pull it out
When I long for your embrace

Deep within the corners of my mind
I'm haunted by your smile
As it promises me joys
Like a journey to a tropic isle

It's not hard to see what you do to me
It's like a page right out of first time love
Though I try to fight
All the words you write, leave me standing
In the starry room in some tragic lovers place

But deep within the corners of my mind
I'm praying secretly
That eventually in time
There'll be a place for you and me

That eventually in time
There'll be a place for you and me
There'll be a place for you and me
Deep within the corners of my mind
