

Goodbye To Happiness

Melody Thornton

As I march forth
There's a feeling incomplete
Slow to realize the magnitude
I've been involuntarily freed

And on one and I
Might find exactly what I need
But on the other hand the thought of you
With another one that isn't me

I go crazy
Cuz I

Wasted away all my time on you
What am I gonna do
Now that you're gone

I go crazy
Cuz I

This is a feeling I can't express
Except for goodbye to happiness
Now that you're gone

My broke pride
You took my tender heart for a ride
How'd you expect me to survive
You set me up to fail

My broke pride
You should've known that I was just a girl
You played my passions for a whirl
And tossed me to the side

I go crazy
Cuz I

Wasted away all my time on you
What am I gonna do
Now that you're gone

Now I go crazy
Cuz I

This is a feeling I can't express
Except for goodbye to happiness
Now that you're gone

Ooooh
Ooooh
Ooooh
Ooooh

I go crazy
Cuz I

Wasted away all my time on you

What am I gonna do
Now that you're gone

I go crazy
Cuz I

This is a feeling I can't express
Except for goodbye to happiness
Now that you're gone
