Love Will Return

Melody Thornton

I've been waiting for this day
When my lover does wake up and realize we're for sure, oh
This day, We're all modest and afraid
To show open my heart stop beating long ago
I've never been able to bounce back
When I fall in love, I fall so hard (I fall so hard)
I'm not running with a butterfly net
Cause true love [?] your arm
So I need some, some

If my love will return to me
I'm missing him desperately
I need him to come home
Oh, If my love will return to me
I'd treat him so properly
Or should I just move on?

Oh, this love, I've been ready for this love
Been preparing all my life
Sorry I can't let go, oh-oh

This love, felt so right, I though this love
Was the realest of all the ones I practiced on

And I've never been one just to give up
When I fall in love, I fall so hard (I fall so hard)
I'm not running with a butterfly net
Love should be fine, you see, it's so hard

Man in the moon
Show me some soul

If my love will return to me
I'm missing him desperately
I can't function at all
Oh, if my love should return to me
I'd treat him so properly
And I never let go

[Outro]
La la la la la la
La la la la la la la
Oh oh oh oh
Oh, la la la la la
La la la la la la
Oh oh oh oh oh
