

Loving You Better

Melody Thornton

All the words that I have
Ain't enough to say thank you, cus you got me back on my feet
All the words that I have
Ain't enough to redeem
Years of faith and what I couldn't see

You're love is never ending, and forever forgiving
So how did I lose
But honest days come fast
The truth is the truth
And I, I can't get over the love that we shared
And I, hope that she's loving you better than I did
Ohhh

All mistakes on my part
Are because I was ignorant and too selfish to see
All mistakes on my part
Mmmm...help me realize I lost the best part of me

And your love is never ending, and forever forgiving
So how did I lose
Now i'm lonely and speechless
All that I have left to tell is the truth, baby
That I, I can't get over the love that we shared
And I, hope that she's loving you better than I did

Lord knows you deserve it
The whole world knows your heart
Lord knows you deserve it
Should've worked with you from the start
Lord knows you deserve it
You deserve all the best
And californias love
The lord grants my request

And I, can't get over the love that we shared
And I, hope that she's loving you better than I did, oh baby iiii, I can't get over the love that we shared
And I, hope that she's loving you better than I did
Ohhh
