

Pray For Me

Melody Thornton

Pray for me
I'm not as happy as I used to be
But have faith I'll stay true to my destiny
I won't leave you behind

Oh
Pray for me
Won't take that shortcut when it comes to me
Cuz I know that victory won't belong to me
I'd rather have my pride

And I refuse to go
The doors may shut behind me
I don't know
But promised this much Momma long ago
I'd stay the course until it's run
Until it's run

Oh
Pray for me
Yes I confess that I'm afraid to be
The master of this pressured legacy
My confidence was robbed

Oh pray for me
Oh Momma don't worry
Pray for me
This crossroads that I've met won't conquer me
Just keep me in your heart

And I refuse to go
The doors may shut behind me
I don't know
But I promised this much Momma long ago
I'd never let you down
Won't let you down

Oh
Pray for me
Pray for me
Pray for me
