

A Universe Apart

Mental As Anything

(Listen, baby
I want you to watch out
Ah, watch out for everyone)

To swerve and to scorch him
Like a flame
Would be a work of art
But we live in very different worlds
A universe apart

We're a universe apart
Universe apart
We're a universe apart
Universe apart

He crawls around
In search of wealth and fame
No skill to recognise
All things of worth look just the same
Through his pathetic eyes

We're a universe apart
Universe apart
We're a universe apart
Universe apart, oh
Mm, mm, mm
Mm, mm
Mm, mm
