Birthday

Mental As Anything

I'm going to smoke some pot
I'm going to drink some beer
Fall off my chair, yeah
It's my birthday

I'm going to spill my drink And slur my words Embarrass my friends Yeah, it's my birthday

I'm going to make a noise Annoy the neighbors They owe me a favor On my birthday

They all say, I should be grown up by now He's too old to behave like a clown Even though he's always been a fool He's uncool, he's uncool

I'm getting fatter and lazier
Losing my hair but I don't care, no
It's my birthday

I got a brand new suit
I got some balloons and a cake, yeah
It's my birthday

All my friends are running late I need some help to celebrate My birthday

They all say I should be grown up by now Get a decent job, comb your hair and settle down He's too old to behave like a clown Even though he's always been a fool He's uncool, he's uncool

I'm going to smoke some pot
I'm going to drink some beer
Fall off my chair, yeah
It's my birthday

I'm going to make a noise Annoy the neighbors They owe me a favor On my birthday

They all say I should be grown up by now
Get a decent job, comb your hair and settle down
He's too old to behave like a clown
Even though he's always been a fool
He's uncool, he's uncool

Even though he's always been a fool He's uncool, he's uncool
He's uncool
He's valout, a uncool
He's so uncool
