

Cannibal

Mental As Anything

My appetite has no bounds
Strange as it may seem
A shameful urge possesses me
Some throwback possibly

If I were a cannibal
You'd be the first to go
Or would I miss you too much
I already know

Would I miss you too much
Would I miss you too much

Suppose I should be put away
Then you would be free
From this perverted maniac
Then you would be free

But would I miss you too much
Would I miss you too much
