

He's Just No Good for You

Mental As Anything

Don't you get the feelin' that
You've done this kind of thing before
You've been kicked in the teeth
And now you're goin' back for more
Come with me - get out of the mess you're in
You take your life in your hand
Every time you fool around with him

He's just no good for you, why are you goin' back
You deserve a whole lot better than that

Your memory must be short
Or you find it very easy to forgive
You must be a little bit crazy
If you think that's how you ought to live

He's just no good for you, why are you goin' back
You deserve a whole lot better than that

Stop and think - while you've got the chance
Stop and think - or you'll be over your head
In a doomed roma-ance

He's just no good for you, why are you goin' back
You deserve a whole lot better than that

Don't you get the feelin' that
You've done this kind of thing before
You've been kicked in the teeth
And now you're goin' back for more and more and more-ore

He's just no good for you, why are you goin' back
You deserve a whole lot better than that
Oh he's just no good for you (that is just no good)
Why are you goin' back (that is just no good)
You deserve a whole lot better than tha-a-at
Oh he's just no good for you (that is just no good)
Why are you goin' back (that is just no good)
You deserve a whole lot better than tha-at
