

Inner Freak

Mental As Anything

Well, your body is a temple, holy, blessed
Only trouble is that you're an atheist
Drink too much, don't get any sleep
But at least you're in touch with your inner freak

Stone move forward
And your stone move back
Night gets warm
And the day goes black
If the reasons to be normal seem feeble, weak
Baby, you're in touch with your inner freak

Inner freak
Inner freak
Inner freak
Inner freak

So you walk around with your head on the side
Everybody's weird and you wonder why
And you never seem to find the good karma you seek
Baby, you're in touch with your inner freak

Inner freak (Inner, inner, inner, inner freak)
Inner freak (Inner, inner, inner, inner freak)

Well, your body is a temple, holy, blessed
Only trouble is that you're an atheist
Drink too much, don't get any sleep
But at least you're in touch with your inner freak

Inner freak
