When I Survey The Wonderous Cross

MercyMe

When I survey the wondrous cross On which the Prince of Glory died My richest gain I count but loss And pour contempt on all my pride

Forbid it Lord that I should boast Save in the death of Christ my God All the vain things that charm me most I sacrificed them to His blood

See from His head His hands His feet Sorrow and love flow mingled down Did ere such love and sorrow meet Or thorns compose so rich a crown

Were the whole realm of nature mine that were a present far too small Love so amazing so divine Demands my soul my life my all
