

All I Ask

Meredith Andrews

Give me eyes to see when my heart is blind
That when I ask You'll give, that when I seek I'll find
Give me ears to hear when my way's confused
Let the uncertain road, still lead me back to You
Oohh, oohh

All I ask, all I seek
Is You, is You
All I want, all I need
Is You

Give me melodies in the silent (?)
And let the fire be where every song is forged
Give me faith to trust in Your promises
That You are truly good, that You are all You said You are Oohh, oohh

All I ask, all I seek
Is You, is You
All I want, and all I need
Is You, is You

All I ask, all I seek
Is You, is You
All I want, all I need
Is You

Whom have I in Heaven but You?
Whom have I on Earth besides You?
Whom have I in Heaven but You?

Whom have I in Heaven but You?
Whom have I on Earth besides You?
Whom have I in Heaven but You?

Whom have I but You, God?

All I ask, all I seek
Is You, is You
All I want, all I need
Is You, is You

All I ask, all I seek
Is You, is You
All I want, all I need
Is You
