

Treasure

Meredith Andrews

Its not what you do for me
Its not what you give to me
Its not about anything but you my king

Cause you are more beautiful
Then anything in this world
Even more wonderful then any gift you bring

My treasure is you, there's no other
My treasure is you, more then gold
Heaven and earth they have lost their luster
You alone are the treasure that I hold

Nothing can take away; nothing can separate
Nothing can come between your heart and mine
Cause you are my everything, the hope of eternity
And you will forever be the love of my life

My treasure is you, there's no other
My treasure is you, more then gold
Heaven and earth they have lost their luster
You alone are the treasure that I hold

Your love is hidden in my heart
And my heart is hidden in your love
Your love is hidden in my heart
And my heart is hidden in your love

My treasure is you, there's no other
My treasure is you, more then gold
Heaven and earth, they have lost their luster
You alone are the treasure that I hold.
You alone the treasure.
