

Wonder Of Wonders

Meredith Andrews

The painted sky, the sparkling sea
They whisper who You are
The distant glow of galaxies
Radiate Your heart
There's a song among the stars

You are the Lord of lords
The wonder of wonders
God of the ages, all of creation
It beats with Your heart

You are the Lord of lords
The wonder of wonders
God never changing, now and for always
You are, You are the Lord
You are the Lord

The whole world carried in Your hand
Stretched out upon the cross
And by Your wounds, our life begins
There's healing in Your scars
There is freedom where You are

You are the Lord of lords
The wonder of wonders
God of the ages, all of creation
It beats with Your heart

You are the Lord of lords
The wonder of wonders
God never changing, now and for always
You are, You are

The wonder of wonders
There is no other
God never changing, now and for always
You are, You are

You spoke in the darkness Your name, Your name
You spoke and it broke all our chains, our chains
Now Jesus sweet Lord, we claim, we claim
Now Jesus sweet Lord, we claim, we claim
Now Jesus sweet Lord, we claim, we claim

You are the Lord of lords
The wonder of wonders
God of the ages, all of creation
It beats with Your heart

You are the Lord of lords
The wonder of wonders
God never changing, now and for always
You are, You are

The wonder of wonders
There is no other (no)
God never changing, now and for always

You are, You are the Lord
You are the Lord
