

Not This Again

Mest

I remember hearing all that you've wanted to be
I remember hearing all that you've wanted to be

I remember nothing but a happy family
You never let me know that times could get so hard You kept me away from the world and its evil heart,
its evil heart

Not this again
Please just give in
He can't take much more He's been through this too many times before

As a child, I remember havin' everything
But now I know you gave me all and you had nothing
As I got older, I saw all that you did
You were just my father
You were my everything, my everything

Not this again
Please just give in
He can't take much more
He's been through this too many times before
God just give in
Please let him win
He can't take much more
He's been through this too many

With nothing left and nothing to lose
When the path comes to an end
You've gotta choose
You taught me well, you taught me right
That losers can't win so don't you give up the fight
No don't you give up the fight

Not this again
Please just give in
He can't take much more
He's been through this too many
times before
God just give in
Please let him win
He can't take much more
times before (too many times before)

God just give in
Please let him win
God just give in
Please let him win
