Is our time gone forever?

Nothing else seems to matter

Sitting to watch the sun die

Goodbye

Feeling uninspired

Waking up to nothing

I need something

I can't say goodbye forever
But I'll say goodbye for now
This time, like last time
It's over
I'm leaving this behind

The walls are closing in now
I'm walking through it somehow
Waking up with nothing
Give me something
I've lost all sense of meaning
Staring at the ceiling
No longer believing everything

I can't say goodbye forever But I'll say goodbye for now This time, like last time It's over I'm leaving this behind

I can't stand another day without you But I have to walk away Infatuation's got me going crazy Desperation makes me stay I'm leaving this behind

This time, like last time It's over I'm leaving this behind

I've taken all that I can take
So I'm leaving this behind
I'm leaving this behind
