

Running, out of sight, salutation hand
Madman, acting fate, mission he was send
Lighter, of the town, warrior of gods
Hubris, drinking mate, messenger of lords

March, as one man, falling down, from beyond
Destroy, in flames, as the morning comes
Rome, town unbroken, the war machine
Force, slaved nations, lived on their knees

Vision, what is seemed, therefore the less gone
Thunder, exploding sound, the fire has now begun
All that, what the saw, a dream within a dream
Half-light, sea of blood, twice the primal scream

March, as one man, falling down, from beyond
Destroy, in flames, as the morning comes
Rome, town unbroken, the war machine
Force, slaved nations, lived on their knees

All that, what the saw, a dream within a dream
Half-light, sea of blood, twice the primal scream

March, as one man, falling down, from beyond
Destroy, in flames, as the morning comes
Rome, town unbroken, the war machine
Force, slaved nations, lived on their knees
