Metal Inquisitor

I'm coming in the battle array
My heart sinks into my boots
I'm looking back - get teary eyes
I'm in front - in the first place
Rate of fire - don't mention it
Field of honor - I want to quit

Confrontation - way of assault
Annihilation - speed and surprise
"In the name of" - whatever is required
The end justifies the means

Reveal the plan, disorder is near
"Take your courage and shatter their spine!"
Unreal, so far - "attack them with pride!"
It's easy to say from the last line

Whistle's blown, the charge has begun
Short of breath, my last run?
A wall of men - a muzzle bulk
Sudden a flash - am I in luck?
A violent hit, I'm losing ground
Wave of blood out of my wound

Confrontation - way of assault
Annihilation - speed and surprise
"In the name of" - whatever is required
The end justifies the means

Reveal the plan, disorder is near
"Take your courage and shatter their spine!"
Unreal, so far - "attack them with pride!"
It's easy to say from the last line
