Suffer the Heretic to Burn

Metal Inquisitor

A face inside a mirror, features of hate to see Looking closer 'n closer, realize it fun could be Again they'll run for shelter, information may arise A kind of morbid anger, what a pack of lies

No pain, no gain - pressure relief Stand by for funeral urn Sound of retreat, hard to believe, suffer the heretic to burn let them burn

Yeah, let them burn, now, let them burn

At the solemn hour, hallowed wooden place Start a giant fire, a shadow of a scared grace Last time when they're screaming, try to catch this sound After final judgement, they are underground

No pain, no gain - pressure relief Stand by for funeral urn Sound of retreat, hard to believe, suffer the heretic to burn let them burn
