

Lawbreaker

Metal Law

I see my fire burning, I feel the rage in me
I find the way out my destiny
I wear my leather jacket, you can stare at me
I know that you're judging me, all the time

Energy straight from my heart, to remember what
I am, to remember what I'll be

Lawbreaker... Lawbreaker...

I see the trouble coming, I know your stupid rules
You waste your pointless life today, yes, I know
I break your fucking rules now, you are such a fool
I know that you're judging me, all the time

Energy straight from my heart, to remember what
I am, to remember what I'll be

Lawbreaker... Lawbreaker...

Lawbreaker... I feel the rage in me
Lawbreaker... Lawbreaker...
I see my fire burning
Lawbreaker... Lawbreaker...
I feel the rage in me
Lawbreaker... Lawbreaker...
I see the trouble coming
Lawbreaker... Lawbreaker...
I break your fucking rules
Lawbreaker... You are such a fool
