

Can You Feel Me

Michael Bolton

Can you feel me?
Can you feel me?

I don't want to open my eyes
Cause if I do, I'll have to leave you and I don't understand why my heart wont do what i tell it to

Wash over me with anything but your tears
Wash over me with anything but my fears

Come on, come on
Can you feel me trying to leave your arms?
Can you hear me begging to stay?
Can you feel me trying to leave your arms?
Can you beg me, beg me to stay

I don't want to say goodbye cause if I do
I may not leave you
And I don't ever want to cry cause
Without that I may never breathe you

Wash over me with anything but your tears
Wash over me with anything but my fears

Come on, come on
Can you feel me trying to leave your arms
Can you hear me begging to stay?
Can you feel me trying to leave your arms?
Can you beg me, beg me to stay

Why don't you warm up these lips,
With your fingertips
Oh my body just aches at the thought of you saying,
Good-bye
Oh, when you look at me with them gorgeous eyes
You know that I can't pretend, is this the end? it feels so right
So

Can you feel me trying to leave your arms?
Can you hear me begging to stay?
Can you hear me?
Can you feel me trying to leave your arms?
Your arms, no
Can you beg me, beg me to stay
Can you feel me?
Can you feel me?
Can you feel me?
Can you feel me?

Beg me to stay
Can you feel me
Can you beg me to stay, stay, stay?
I don't want to open my eyes cause if
I do I may not leave you
I don't want to open my eyes cause if
I do I may not leave you
