

Hideaway

Michael Franks

Zombie trains
Midnight planes
Stews are too acidic
Not to mention
Kansas City critics

The road has left us at loose ends
We need some recreation right away
We ought to jump into the Benz
And drive up to our hideaway

Missing gear
Mutineers
All the cats get witty
Not to mention
Gig in Motor City

The road has left us at loose ends
We need some recreation right away
We ought to jump into the Benz
And drive up to our hideaway
