

Make It Go Away

Michael Monroe

Don't you think it's amazing
That i even function in this world
There's no point of reference
For this kind of grief
Don't need it anymore
You may not have noticed lately
That i've disappeared completely
With solitude, my loyal faithful friend
Don't you think it's courageous
To be consistant with chaos in your face
Why d'you think it's so depressing
That i'm always good for my word
The only one i've ever let down
Was myself for sacrificing
My needs for everybody else
If someone loves me tonight
Loneliness loves me more
