

Anytime

The Michael Schenker Group

Blow a kiss from your hand,
I'll catch it 'fore it hits the ground Cry a little for our fears... Baby... Baby I'm so scared there's something wrong
I hid you in the corner of my empty room, Never really cared 'til now, not standin in the corner for me anymore, you done your time pass your sentence an' I'll pass mine But when my time is thru can I still come home to you

Anytime, anytime you want me,
Anytime, anytime your lonely you just have to call 'cos you know I'll be there ..ooooo....
Anytime, anytime you need me
Anytime, anytime maybe you're dreamin'
Waking up all alone, you're heart is screaming
Ohhhhhh

I know I caused you so much pain,
I promise that I'll never hurt you again
Even tho the scars remain
With a little time I know we can win Cant stop this fire, lost control over my desire Still it burns for you like it always used to do

Anytime, anytime you want me,
Anytime, anytime your lonely
you just have to call 'cos you
know I'll be there ..ooooo....
Anytime, anytime you need me
Anytime, anytime maybe you're dreamin'
Waking up all alone, you're heart is screaming
Ohhhhhh

And after the war is over and all the fighting is thru Can I make my peace with you?
I wanna come home to you

Anytime, anytime you want me,
Anytime, anytime your lonely you just have to call 'cos I'm always there. ..Yeahhh....
Anytime, anytime you need me
Anytime, anytime maybe you're dreamin'
Waking up all alone, you're heart is screaming
Ohhhhhh

Anytime, anytime you want me,
Ooooooo so lonely... so lonely..... but you know I careYeah.....
Anytime, anytime do you need me Anytime, anytime ohhh are ya dreamin

Waking up all alone, you're heart is screaming
Ohhhhhh
